

Outcomes:By the end of this unit all pupils should know:

- To know some information about Rosh Hashanah, the beginning of the Jewish New year
- To know about Yom Kippur (the end of 10 days of fasting)
- Know that Jews believe in one G-d who created the universe.
- Know basic elements of the story found in Genesis:
 - G-d made the world from nothing
 - G-d Makes everything in the world, including plants and animals
 - Man is the last to be made
 - Man is made last and is given responsibility to care for the world G-d has created
- Know that Jews have coming of age ceremonies: Bar and Bat Mitzvah (for boys and girls, respectively)
- Know that Jews believe in one God who created the universe.
- Be able to recognise the Star of David as a symbol of Judaism, which represents the 6 days of creation found in Genesis.
- Know that the Jewish name for God is Adonai which mean 'Lord'. Jews use the name with great respect, never carelessly. Sometimes Jews write the words as God because of its sacredness.
- Know that Jews live all over the world, but Israel is considered very special as it was promised to Abraham and his descendants by God.

By the end of this unit pupils should have developed the following skills:

- Be able to recognise the Star of David as a symbol of Judaism, which represents the 6 days of creation found in Genesis.
- Raise and suggest answers to relevant questions in response to the story of creation.
- Attempt to support their answers using reasons and/or information.

Progression:Prior Learning:

No previous learning via RE, though pupils may have heard about the Islamic faith during collective worship,

Building Towards:Year 2

- Know that the Torah means 'teaching' is the most important part of Jewish scriptures.
- Know that it contains the first 5 books of the Hebrew Bible.
- To know it teaches Jews what God is like and how they should live their lives.
- To know that one day a week Jews observe the Sabbath: they rest, have a meal on Friday evening with their family. Jews believe that bringing the family together once a week when no one works is important.
