

Underline the pronoun in the sentence.

1.

Jake looked at the jigsaw puzzle and he tried to find one of the missing pieces.

Identify whether the underlined section of the sentence is a main or subordinate clause.

2.

Jenny hoped that her new trainers would arrive soon because she wanted to wear them to the party.

= _____

Rewrite this sentence in the passive voice.

3.

My friend visited the library.

Rewrite these nouns as adjectives.

4.

a) confidence = _____

b) laziness = _____

c) support = _____

Which of these sentences uses a colon correctly?

5.

Libby could only feel one emotion that day: excitement. -----

Libby could only feel: one emotion that day excitement. -----

Libby could only feel one emotion: that day excitement. -----

Libby: could only feel one emotion that day excitement. -----

Complete the sentence so that it is written in standard English.

6.

My auntie (seen / saw / seeing) her favourite band in concert last night.

Rewrite this sentence in the past perfect verb form.

7.

We ate pizza every Sunday for the last year.

